

2018 Cranford H.S. MUN Conference Awards

The Cranford High School Model U. N. Club participated in the 48th Annual YMCA Model United Nations Conference in Hershey, Pennsylvania. Our delegation of 100 students participated in the conference with approximately 1700 students representing over 30 schools throughout the New Jersey, Delaware and Pennsylvania area.

Here is a list of our student accomplishments:

Danny Nicholas was recognized for Outstanding Country as a delegate from Czech Republic.

Colin Budries and Minato Hiroaka was recognized for Outstanding Country as a delegate from United Kingdom.

Nicholas Assaf was recognized for Outstanding Country as a delegate from United States of America.

Madeline Simone was recognized for Premier Country as a delegate from Australia.

Gabe Beckford was recognized as Premier Diplomat in the Non-Governmental Forum.

Andrew Rojo was recognized for writing an Outstanding Country Research Paper.

Cam Matheson was recognized as the Outstanding 1st Year Delegate in the International Criminal Court.

Burke Jaeger was elected as Chair of Nation Building Committee.

The Cranford High School delegation as a whole was awarded Outstanding Delegation. This distinction is given to schools in the conference for their adherence to program rules, and overall preparation and performance of the student delegates.

The following students were invited to attend the annual YMCA Youth Conference On National Affairs (CONA). Twenty-five student delegates of the approximately 1700 who attend conference are selected for this honor. We have the distinction of having 2 students attending. Those students are:

Burke Jaeger
Emma DeBole

The following students were selected as alternates.

Gabe Beckford