FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cranford High School Fine and Performing Arts Departments will present their January 2018 events on the 11th and 12th of this month.

On Thursday, January 11th from 6:30-8:00pm, the Fine Art Department will host its Winter Art Show in the Cranford High School Library, featuring the work of art, crafts, graphics, and photography students. The Cranford High School Concert Band and Jazz Ensemble will present their Winter Concert at 7:30pm also on Thursday, January 11th in the auditorium. Join us for the art exhibits starting at 6:30pm and then the concert at 7:30pm.

The actors from the Cranford High School Academy of Performing Arts will present their Winter Showcase on Friday January 12th at 7:30pm in the auditorium. The students will perform scenes and monologues prepared in class, many of which will have been presented in the Speech and Theatre Association of New Jersey's annual high school competition.

Come in from the cold and enjoy the creative work of Cranford High School's Fine and Performing Arts students!
