| 1. Find a German recipe for a typical German, Austrian or Swiss dish and make it for your family or friends. How was it?   | 2. Find & read some cartoons, jokes (Witze), or tongue twisters (Zungenbrecher) in German. Practice saying them!  | 3. Go to deutschland.de and explore the website. Look at several of the themes and jot down some interesting info.           | 4. Find a free app for your phone or tablet for learning German. Duolingo, Drops, and Ankommen are some good ones.  | 5. Look at the top 10 charts for Germany or Austria & listen to some German music! Or search online for favorite music style in German!   |
| 6. Watch 2 or more movie trailers in German. What words did you recognize? New words?  | 7. Practice & learn German words at german-games.net or another language practice site.   | 8. Go to audio-lingua.eu and click on German. Under advanced search, select A1, A2, or B1 level. Listen to some recordings. | 9. Look up information on German artists or art movements. What are some German words related to this topic?  | 10. Go to dw.com & search "Discover Germany-The Travel Guide." Watch some episodes! Reflect on what you saw & learned. Can also be found on YouTube.      |
| 11. Look up information about German inventors or inventions (new & old).  | 12. Using post-it notes & wordreference.com label at least 10 items around your house in German. See how well you know the words after a week.   | 13. Deine Wahl! (Your choice on activity!)   | 14. Watch a movie in German on Netflix, Disney+, or Amazon Prime. Some can be found on YouTube as well.   | 15. Subscribe to a YouTube channel about learning German and watch a few episodes each week. (see next page for ideas.)   |
| 16. Got to dw.com and click on "Learn German" & try one of the online courses. Or try the placement test to see how you do. (Nicos Weg is good!) | 17. USE INSTANTSTREETVIEW.COM TO LOOK AT SOME TOWNS/CITIES IN GERMAN SPEAKING REGIONS. WHAT DO YOU NOTICE? WHAT WORDS DO YOU SEE? WHAT IS SIMILAR OR DIFFERENT TO AREAS IN THE US? | 18. Go to goethe.de/stepintogerman and check out info on music, film, soccer.                                      | 19. Look up information about studying in Germany at www.study-in.de or www.daad.org | 20. Watch some of the show "Sendung mit der Maus" at this link: wdrmaus.de OR Science shows at wissen-macht-ah . |
| 21. Learn about national parks or world heritage sites in Germany, Austria, or Switzerland. Look at info in German & write down vocab/facts.                 | 22. Practice vocab while listening to German music here: lyricstraining.com   | 23. Download the Wordreference app & learn words you'd need on a German trip. Why did you choose these words?  | 24. Find an online menu for a restaurant in a German-speaking region. Figure out vocab & what you'd like to order.  | 25. Learn vocab + info about popular sports in Germany, Austria, or Switzerland.  |
