

At this past weekend's Youth and Government conference, Cranford High School students took part in mock legislative and judicial hearings, ran for office, and participated in debate with 400 students from around New Jersey. In addition to receiving the Outstanding Delegation award, Cranford students received the following honors.

Carrie Bilenker served as the 2011 Youth Governor.

Billy Daly was elected 2012 Youth Governor.

The following students' bills were passed by the youth legislature and were signed into law by the Youth Governor: Eli Howard, John Flynn, Billy Daly, Rachel Zanfardino, Matt LaFronz, and Kristian Brito.

Billy Daly and Rachel Zanfardino received recognition for Outstanding Legislation.

Best Judicial Brief was awarded to Nicole Somma, Joe Bringuier, Matt Bringuier, and Jacob Gelber.

Jon Furer and Eli Howard were each received the Outstanding Statesman award.

Jacob Gelber was awarded Outstanding Delegate for Judicial.

Matt LaFronz was elected Senate Clerk, and Jon Furer was elected Senate President.

The following students were selected to attend this year's Conference on National Affairs (CONA): Billy Daly, Carrie Bilenker, Jon Furer, and Eli Howard.

The following students were selected as alternates for this year's Conference on National Affairs (CONA): Matt LaFronz and Tom Feeney.